Calling all sailors

North Cove Yacht Club in Old Saybrook seeks participants for the 38th annual Eastern Connecticut Sailing Association Outer Light Classic Regatta that will take place Saturday, June 28. Boats will compete in spinnaker and non-spinnaker classes beginning at 11 a.m. one mile west of the Saybrook Outer Light.

The first 30 boats to register will be equipped with Kattack tracking units allowing racers to view the race on a computer at a post-race party at the club or from home on the Web. Racers will be able to see exactly what tactics the winners used.

The post-race party will also feature the Laid Back Quartet and the "Inner Light Cup" races pitting the racers against each other again, this time in Dyer dinghies.

For more information or to register, call (860) 388-9132, (860) 227-6799 or log onto www.northcoveyc.com.

Navicular, a J109, flies her spinnaker while competing in the 2007 Outer Light Classic regatta.
